About Me

A passionate enthusiast of stealth-based video games, I enjoy titles such as Splinter Cell, Dishonored (1 & 2), Metal Gear Solid V, and The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt, which reflect my appreciation for strategic thinking and immersive storytelling. While I am generally reserved and find frequent social interaction to be mentally taxing, I engage comfortably and meaningfully with individuals I am close to. Additionally, I am committed to maintaining physical well-being; although I previously trained at a gym, I currently pursue a disciplined home workout routine to stay active and healthy.
